To Whom It May Concern

Re: Aaron Le Boutellier

Aaron has conducted 'Self-defence for Travellers' at a number of Google offices in APAC. His training includes a good mix of actual hands on self-defence training, theory and Q&A in the form of 'what ifs?'

Without exception each class has provided excellent feedback on Aaron's knowledge and delivery.

His training is relevant to all employees living, traveling and working in the region and has been a particular hit with our female executives.

I would not hesitate to recommend Aaron and his training to other MNC's.

Yours sincerely,
